

Technical specifications Whiteman Hall

Phoenix Art Museum

1625 North Central Avenue • Corner of Central & McDowell
Phoenix, AZ 85004 • (602) 257-1880
PhxArt.org • info@phxart.org

General

- Tiered seating for 297 (overflow of 10 folding chairs)
- Acoustically tuned
- Stage: 24' wide × 12' deep
- Screen: 20' wide × 10' tall (16' wide × 9' tall viewing area)
- Standby audiovisual technician
- Fixed, adjustable-height lectern with lighting for speaker (wheelchair accessible)
- Infrared hearing assistance for audience available upon request

Computer

- Hewlett-Packard 6910P laptop (PC): Office 2007 professional suite, Windows Explorer and Windows Picture & Fax Viewer, Windows Media Player
- Macintosh iBook G4 (Mac): Office 2004 for Mac

Video (NTSC/Zone 1)

- Laserdisk
- VHS
- DVD-R, DVD-RW
- Blu-ray

Projection

- Panasonic PT-D26700UL high-definition LCD projector (7000 lumens)

Analog

- (2) 35mm slide projectors

Audio

- CD/cassette
- Surround sound two-channel stereo

Amplification

- Fixed lectern microphone with 3' range (always on)
- (4) wired microphones (handheld or on stands)
- (1) wireless handheld microphone
- (1) wireless headset microphone
- (6) adjustable-height microphone floor stands
- (6) microphone table stands

Internet

- Hard-cable internet for lectern only

Miscellaneous

- Adjustable lighting with six presets
- Digital overhead projector (transparencies or opaque)
- Audio recording available upon request
- Laser pointer available upon request
- Logitech Wireless Presenter R400 remote control with built-in laser pointer available upon request (PC only)

Please note

- Presenters should plan to arrive 45-60 minutes before the scheduled program time for an AV check.
- Presenters may choose to bring personal laptops. Whiteman Hall is already equipped to connect to PCs; Mac users should bring display/video adapters to connect to the Museum's equipment.