Contemporary Forum of Phoenix Art Museum presents the first-annual Art + Architecture Weekend 2017

Contemporary Forum will host a three-day event celebrating Phoenix’s finest homes and contemporary art collections

PHOENIX (January 4, 2017) – Contemporary Forum, a support group of the Phoenix Art Museum, is pleased to announce their new annual fundraiser: the Contemporary Forum Art + Architecture Weekend. The first annual Art + Architecture Weekend will take place February 24-26, 2017, at several locations across the Valley. Participants will be invited to visit area homes with outstanding architectural components and contemporary art collections, as well as enjoy lectures by top Phoenician architects, a twilight tour of Taliesin West, and parties throughout the Valley.

“We are excited that Contemporary Forum support organization is reaching out to the architecture community through this event, as architecture and art go hand in hand,” says The Selig Family Chief Curator of Phoenix Art Museum, Gilbert Vicario. “The progressive architecture community of Phoenix continues to elevate Phoenix in terms of modernity and style and Contemporary Forum is on the forefront of contemporary art collecting, so this is a perfect blending of the two areas.”

The Contemporary Forum Art + Architecture Weekend will take place over three days in February. Tickets are available for purchase online beginning Monday, January 9th at artandarchitectureweekend.org. Three levels of participation are available: Silver, Gold and Platinum:
