

Phoenix Art Museum

Advance Exhibition Schedule

MEDIA CONTACT:

Margaree Bigler, Marketing and Communications Manager
602.257.2105 | margaree.bigler@phxart.org

Phoenix Art Museum Advance Exhibition Schedule

Current and Upcoming Exhibitions as of July 1, 2017

PHOENIX (July 1, 2017) – Phoenix Art Museum presents a wide variety of exhibitions throughout the year in its multiple galleries. This release represents the most up-to-date information available regarding current and upcoming exhibitions. Please note: Exhibition titles and dates may be subject to change.

Good Sport

Orientation Gallery | Through September 3

Pay homage to the rites and rituals of athleticism and its depiction in works of art throughout the ages, from tennis and baseball to ballet and bullfighting.

2016 Contemporary Forum Artists Grants Winners Exhibition

Marley Gallery | Through September 17

The Artists Grants encourage emerging artists living in Arizona. Discover works by the 2016 recipients: David Emitt Adams, Christine Cassano, Bryan David Griffith, Constance McBride, and Mary Meyer.

2016 Arlene and Morton Scult Contemporary Forum Artist Award Exhibition

Anderman Gallery | Through September 17

This annual award recognizes a sustained degree of excellence and commitment to contemporary art. See the work of the 2016 recipient, Patricia Sannit.

Longer Ways to Go: Photography of the American Road

Norton Photography Gallery | Through October 15

Take a trip across America's roads through photographs made along Route 66 by Japanese photographer Kōzō Miyoshi, as well as works by Dorothea Lange, Ansel Adams, Ed Ruscha, Richard Avedon and more.

Virtue and Valor: Sikh Art and Heritage

Sikh Art Gallery | Through November 5

Explore the history and artwork of Sikhism through a range of objects drawn from the Khanuja Family Collection.

INFOCUS PhotoBid 2017 Exhibition and Auction

Norton Photography Gallery | October 21 – November 15

See a unique selection of contemporary photographs, photography books, and photography-related opportunities on which to bid. All items will be auctioned on November 16, benefiting Phoenix Art Museum and its photography support group, INFOCUS.

Past/Future/Present: Contemporary Brazilian Art from the Museum of Modern Art, São Paulo*

Steele Gallery | September 1 – December 31

Discover 70 artworks integral to the development of contemporary art in Brazil, created by 59 artists recognized as the pioneers of their generation.

A Tribute to James Galanos

Ellman Gallery | August 19, 2017 – January 7, 2018

Discover the life and work of the late American designer (1924-2016) who produced couture-level ready-to-wear garments for a celebrity clientele throughout five decades in Los Angeles. This exhibition features never-before-seen personal archives.

Sheila Pepe: Hot Mess Formalism

Anderman, Marcus, and Marley Galleries | October 14, 2017 – January 28, 2018

Experience the first mid-career survey of the work of Sheila Pepe and her large-scale, ephemeral installations and sculpture made from domestic and industrial fibrous materials.

Infinite Light: A Photographic Meditation on Tibet

Art of Asia Gallery | September 23, 2017 – February 18, 2018

Explore photojournalist Marissa Roth's literal and impressionistic views of Tibetan Buddhist practice and devotion, using Kodachrome film during her travels in 2007 and 2010.

The Logic of the Copy: Photomechanical Printmaking from the Center for Creative Photography

Norton Photography Gallery | December 2, 2017 – April 22, 2018

Examine the ways in which photography's marriage to printmaking contributed to the proliferation of photography and gave rise to a lexicon adopted by generations of artists.

Philip C. Curtis: The New Deal and American Regionalism

Lewis Gallery | Through May 20, 2018

See one of Arizona's most historically-significant artists as you've never seen him before: Philip C. Curtis as a painter and arts advocate during the Great-Depression decade of the mid-1930s through the end of World War II.

Alexander Calder: An Outburst of Color

Orientation Gallery | Opens September 9, 2017

Experience a selection of spontaneous and lively works by the 20th-century American artist (1898-1976), drawn from the Museum's collection.

Border Crossings: Mexico and the American Southwest

Marshall and Hendler Galleries | On View through Summer 2018

Take part in a cultural conversation between Mexico and the United States through a selection of works, created between 1916 and 1950, that explore themes of women artists, landscape, indigenous subjects, and portraits.

Selections from the Schorr Collection

Harnett and Ullman Galleries | On View through 2018

Discover one of the United Kingdom's most important collections of Old Master and 19th-century paintings, through nearly 50 works including a 17th-century portrait by Antony van Dyck and three series by Francisco Goya.

*This is a specially-ticketed exhibition. Free for Members.

About the Exhibitions:

All exhibitions are free for Museum Members during open hours. For more information about Membership, visit phxart.org/membership. Exhibitions shown in Steele Gallery and other demarcated galleries (*) may have special exhibition fees during free-access times, such as #freeafterthree Wednesdays, when the Museum offers free general admission from 3–9pm every Wednesday night; the First Fridays of every month, when general admission is free from 6–10pm; and during Discount Tire Free Family Weekends, when general admission is free each day of the second weekend of every month. Visit phxart.org/exhibition for detailed admission information. Information will be posted as it becomes available. For information on general admission, visit bit.ly/visitphxart or call 602.257.1222.

About Phoenix Art Museum

Phoenix Art Museum has provided access to visual arts and educational programs in Arizona for more than 50 years and is the largest art museum in the Southwestern United States. In addition to an annual calendar of special exhibitions,

Phoenix Art Museum's permanent collection galleries are drawn from more than 18,000 objects of modern and contemporary art, fashion design, and photography, as well as American, Asian, Latin American, and European art. Each month, the Museum hosts a wide variety of public programs, including lectures, performances, tours, workshops, and film screenings designed for audiences of all ages to enjoy. To learn more about Phoenix Art Museum, visit PhxArt.org, or call the 24-hour recorded information line at 602.257.1222.

###